Sanctuary Sunday

Challenging hostility with hospitality -

Today is Sanctuary

Sunday which marks the end of Refugee Week and aims to promote the Church of

Sanctuary programme, building cultures of welcome, hospitality and safety in our churches. If you would like to work with Swansea City of Sanctuary and SASS, to help your church and congregation be a place of respite and peace for people, please let Fr Tim know.

Please pray for all refugees in a time of great hostility stirred up by ambitious politicians and other populist, scare-spreading people on the social climb.

Third Sunday after Trinity

"Whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me... those who lose their life for my sake will find it." Matt10

I kneel in the sand:

God give me,

The Courage to follow,

The Thread of Love.

I hear the voice of,

The One Who Speaks The Word,

Not with ease, but with clarity,

A sword that divides,

A cross that must be lifted,

A life that is found,

Only when it is given away.

I feel the weight of it,

Yet also its strange lightness.

For beneath the sharpness,

Of His words,

Is a tenderness that counts,

Every hair,

That sees every sparrow fall,

That knows my worth,

More deeply than I do.

Like this,

Does insight arrive,

Quietly:

To follow Him is not to lose myself,

But to discover the truest self,

Hidden beneath fear,

Beneath habit, beneath,

The stories I have outgrown.

The fire, the freedom, and the call,

Harmonics in the music of love,

Are drawing me, deeper into God.
