Safeguarding

‘Gower Ministry Area churches take the safety of children, young people and vulnerable adults very seriously, dealing openly and transparently with any issues raised. We are committed to ensuring that all our services, events and venues are safe spaces and to dealing openly and transparently with any issues raised.’

Time for some of us to renew our 3 yearly training. Please check with Andy if you are not sure about yours.

Lord of the Journey, we thank

You for the beauty and peace of The Gower Pilgrimage Way. Bless all who walk these paths—locals and visitors alike—as they seek rest, reflection, and renewal. May each step draw them closer to You, the source of life and hope. Let the sights and sounds of creation speak of Your majesty and love. Guide hearts to find meaning in the stillness and strength for the road ahead.

October 4th 2026 – Trinity 18

“The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.” Matthew 21

*

I am the rejected stone.
I am the One scorned by the powerful,
Dismissed by the political,
Ignored by those who believe,
The vineyard belongs to them alone.
And yet, I am the cornerstone,
Of the very peace you long for.
The nations fight for inheritance.
People grope for land, for honour,
For safety, for control of the story.
But the inheritance is mine to give,
And I give it only to those,
Who will bear the fruits of the kingdom:
Mercy, justice, humility, authenticity.....
Don't be afraid to be broken upon me.
Breakage is not destruction,
But rather the shattering of fakery,
The ripping open of the heart,
The clearing of space for truth.
Let yourself fall on me.
For only those,
Who have been wounded,
Can become,
Builders of peace,
In this wounded world.
